

Child Protection awareness

Webinar for Scottish Brass Band Association

Thursday, 10 June 2021, 6.30pm-8.30pm

Training delivered by NSPCC Scotland and Children in Scotland.

Aim of the course:

This practical 2-hour online session will help you feel confident about child protection, being able to share your knowledge with staff and colleagues, to ensure you are up-to-date on your understanding of your role and responsibilities within the Scottish Brass Band Association to support children and young people, keeping them safe.

Key learning:

- What is child protection: definition and legislation
- Key principles of working with children and young people and how to apply them in practice
- Dealing with disclosures and suspicions of abuse and neglect
- Signs of concern and how to respond.

About NSPCC

NSPCC's vision for children is a society where all children are loved, valued and able to fulfil their potential. NSPCC exists to prevent children from cruelty and to provide protection for them.

NSPCC Scotland strives to be a learning organisation that values the development and dissemination of knowledge and skills throughout the organisation.

Training and development provided by NSPCC Scotland Training and Consultancy seeks to contribute to these goals and promote the values of the organisation.

About Children in Scotland

Giving all children in Scotland an equal chance to flourish is at the heart of everything we do.

By bringing together a network of people working with and for children, alongside children and young people themselves, we offer a broad, balanced and independent voice. We create solutions, provide support and develop positive change across all areas affecting children in Scotland.

We do this by listening, gathering evidence, and applying and sharing our learning, while always working to uphold children's rights. Our range of knowledge and expertise means we can provide trusted support on issues as diverse as the people we work with and the varied lives of children and families in Scotland.
